ABOUT CANINE COMPANIONS

Founded in 1975, Canine Companions is a nonprofit organization that enhances the lives of people with disabilities by providing expertly trained service dogs – free of charge. As a national organization, Canine Companions is the leader in the service dog industry and has placed service dogs with recipients in all 50 states and in your community. Learn more at canine.org.

WHY SPONSOR?

Your sponsorship enables Canine Companions to place more service dogs, free of charge, to children, adults and veterans with disabilities. In addition to making a difference in someone's life, the support provided by your sponsorship showcases goodwill throughout your community and in the workplace. You will benefit from increased exposure through the variety of sponsorship benefits provided. For more information, refer to the benefit overview on the enclosed sheet.

WAYS TO GET INVOLVED

With DogFest, you have the opportunity to partner with a world-class organization that changes lives. There are many ways you can support DogFest and Canine Companions:

BECOME A CASH SPONSOR

Because DogFest is spearheaded by a group of passionate volunteer leaders, the return on investment is very high.

PROVIDE IN-KIND RESOURCES

Examples of in-kind resources needed for DogFest include: venue space, rental equipment, media coverage/ advertising, American Sign Language interpretation and more. Let us know if you have a resource to share.

CREATE A FUNDRAISING TEAM

Encourage your employees or members of your organization to get involved in DogFest by forming a team to raise funds in advance of the event. Working with our local volunteers, you can hold a “lunch and learn” for employees to meet a Canine Companions dog and learn about our organization.

BE A PLANNING COMMITTEE LEADER OR MEMBER

DogFest is a volunteer-led event. Share your time and talents to help make DogFest even bigger and better. Volunteering for DogFest provides leadership opportunities and is a great way to serve the local community.

VOLUNTEER ON EVENT DAY

Helping on the day of the event is another fun way to engage your business, organization or foundation. Volunteering is a great team-builder while also a way to let the community know you are a supporter of Canine Companions. There are a variety of volunteer opportunities, and we'd love to have you join us.

My dog means the world to me. He is my friend, my sidekick, my world. By supporting DogFest, your sponsorship helps place a service dog that provides joy and increased independence to someone with a disability.

- Troy with pet dog Tucker

When I am out in public with Ian, I have much more confidence and my heart could explode with happiness and appreciation. Ian loves to have fun, but when he has that vest on and is by my side, he shines. He is so happy and ready for whatever I ask.

Contact your local regional office (canine.org/locations) for details about the tax-deductible portion of your sponsorship. Benefits may be adjusted in the event of an all-virtual DogFest.

Sponsors may supply a banner to be prominently displayed at DogFest and may also provide giveaway items to be distributed to all registrants.

Sponsorship of DogFest is a way for sponsors to show their support of Canine Companions. While sponsorship does afford some benefits, the higher purpose is to help Canine Companions fulfill its mission to provide expertly trained service dogs to people with disabilities free of charge.

Canine Companions is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Our tax ID number is 94-2494324.
